

How to introduce Taipei to a foreigner?

Taipei is a city that is becoming more and more international and famous because of its food, architecture, history, and people. Many foreigners work here and have business meetings here.

Taipei is a special and fantastic city in Taiwan. First, it's a modern city with a lot of traffic and tall buildings. Next, many activities will be held in Taipei because it has the most population in Taiwan. There are many delicious food in Taiwan. You don't have to go to different cities or different countries, and you can eat all kinds of good foods here.

One of the reasons why Taipei is famous is because its "night market". You can eat many Taiwanese food there, such as stinky tofu, beef noodles...etc. Also, you can have a lot of fun playing games in the night market, like shooting balloons. Best of all, you can buy the cheapest thing there.

You can see not only tall buildings and traffic but also some old temples. Go visit some temples to see the arts of Chinese history and wish for good luck. If you don't know how to go to those great places, you should take the MRT! The MRT is convenient and clean, and the directions are very clear to see. You can know where you are and where you are going easily.

The most important place you have to visit is the tallest building in the world, Taipei 101. You can see how the whole Taipei looks at night, and remember to take a picture of Taipei as well. The museums in Taipei are the best in Taiwan. You can see many old things from China, like things that were used in China long time ago or some beautiful arts. And you will know everything in Chinese history by visiting these museums.

Do you know what the best thing of Taipei is? People are very friendly here. They will be kind to you if you have any questions or any problems. They will also introduce you where to visit or where to have delicious food, so it's easy to make friends in Taipei. Taipei is a great and wonderful place to enjoy and relax yourself.
